As hot water rises through limestone, large quantities of rock are dissolved by the hot water, and a white chalky mineral is deposited on the surface. The Roosevelt National Historic District in the northeast keeps the original scenes of the “Old West”. The central are Lower Falls and Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone, presenting breathtaking views of landscapes. To the Southeast of the park lays the Yellowstone Lake. In the west and southwest, Yellowstone is home to some 10,000 thermal features, over 500 hundred of which are geysers. Yellowstone is also pristine mountain-range wilderness and an open refuge for wildlife, including grizzly bear, elk, American bison, moose and wolf.

We will continue to explore the Yellowstone Park by visiting Mammoth Hot Springs, Grand Canyon, Yellowstone River Falls, Tower Fall and etc. In the afternoon, we will drive back to Missoula.

Day 6: Seattle City Tour

Seattle is the largest city in both the State of Washington and Pacific Northwest region of North America. Here, we will bring you to take a tour inside Boeing factory located in WA. Being the largest aircraft manufacturer in the world, at its factory you will learn the history of aircraft making as well as see one of the four huge Dreamlifters in the world; there will be professional Boeing employee guiding you to tour the Boeing Assembly Plant inside the world's largest building (by volume) to watch Boeing 747, 777 and 787 Dreamliner jets being assembled. Boeing can build a miracle in only 3 days, so get ready to widen your eyes with an unparalleled experience. Next, we will go to Pike Place Market which opened over a hundred years ago and is one of the oldest continuously operated public farmers' markets in the United States. Originated by farmers for selling their products, the Pike Place Market is now one of the major tour attractions in Seattle, holding about 200 commercial events every year and exhibiting 190 kinds of handcrafts by 120 agriculture venders plus street performers. It is worth noting that the first and original Starbucks store opened here in 1971. After strolling around the market, we will head to Space Needle.

Space Needle is an observation tower and an icon of Seattle. It was built in the Seattle Center for the 1962 World's Fair. On top of the tower you are offered with free telescope to see the amazing view of not only Seattle city but also Puget Sound and Mt. Rainier. Another surprise will be the "Teleporter" kiosks that were created and collaborated between the Space Needle and Microsoft. Using Microsoft Photosynth technology and content shot by Creature, the 520 Teleporter offers a 3D experience that can't be found anywhere else. Then we will visit the EMP museum located at the foot of Space Needle. EMP stands for Experience Music Project. EMP is the first commercial project that Frank O. Gehry, the avant-garde architect, has designed in the Pacific Northwest. Founded by Paul Allen the Microsoft cofounder, EMP Museum is dedicated to the ideas and risk-taking that fuel popular culture. Three thousand panels, made up of 21,000 individually cut and shaped stainless steel and painted aluminum shingles, encase the stunning outside of the building. In the end, we will complete the Seattle's tour by visiting the Pioneer Square. Pioneer Square is Seattle's Original neighborhood since 1852. Day 8: Mt. Rainier National Park

Mt. Rainier is the tallest volcano of the Continental United States, the 5th tallest mountain of the entire US territory. The mountain top is covered by snow all year round. When snow melts, snow water flows down in a large volume, which creates beautiful waterfalls and vast lakes meanwhile irrigates the forest land. Mount Rainier is circled by the 93-mile-long Wonderland Trail and is covered by several glaciers and snowfields totaling some 35 square miles. Carbon Glacier is the largest glacier by volume in the contiguous United States, while Emmons Glacier is the largest glacier by area. About 1.8 million people visit Mount Rainier National Park each year. Mount Rainier is a popular peak for mountaineering with some 10,000 attempts per year with approximately 50% making it to the summit. We will go along the Wonderland Trail by stopping at 2-3 scenic spots. (According to the situation of the day) In the summer, we will lead you traverse the Volcano mountains.
